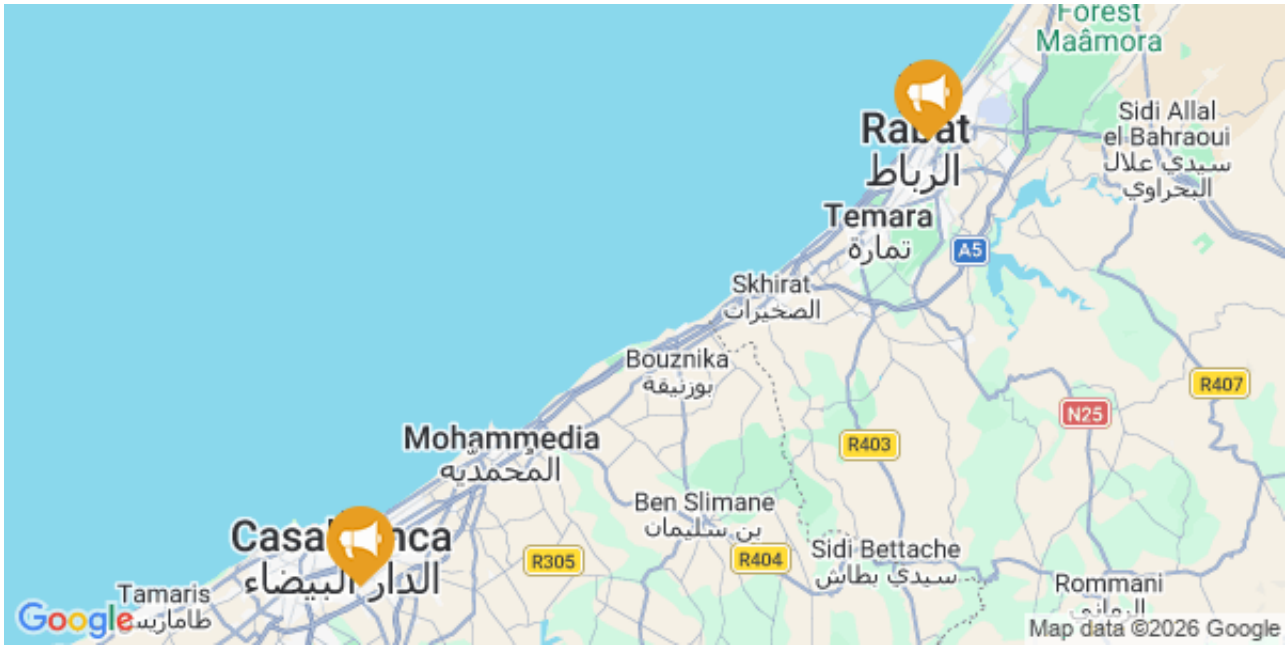
Protest



27
NOV
10:41 UTC

Morocco Alert: Pro-Palestinian protests slated in Rabat, Casablanca on November 27, 29; maintain heightened vigilance

Current Situation:

Pro-Palestinian groups have called for protests on November 29 to mark the International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People. Organizers are calling for the condemnation of Morocco's normalization of relations with Israel and urging the Moroccan government to end the normalization process.

November 27

- "The National Action Group for Palestine," has called for a protest rally outside the Parliament in Rabat at 18:00 (local time) on November 27.
- The group has also claimed that similar activities will take place across Moroccan cities on November 27-29.

November 29

- The "Moroccan Front for the Support of Palestine and Against Normalization" has called for a march in Casablanca’s Sbata neighbourhood at 15:00 on November 29.

- The Casablanca march will start from Dar al-Tozani toward Hammam al-Fann, passing through Nile Street (Boulevard du Nil) and Heroes Street (al-Harouiyine Street), and ending at the intersection of Tree Street (al-Shajar Street).

Source: The National Action Group for Palestine; Moroccan Front for the Support of Palestine and Against Normalization

Recommendations:

1. Those operating or residing in Rabat and Casablanca are advised to maintain heightened vigilance in the vicinity of protest areas on November 27-29 due to the planned protests and associated risk of localized unrest.
2. Remain cognizant of pro-Palestinian protests occurring in other Moroccan cities during November 27-29
3. American and Israeli citizens and Jewish individuals are advised to maintain a low profile in public and to avoid revealing their identities and religious and political inclinations.