Germany Tactical: Rally against prison violence to be held at Turmstrasse in Berlin at 20:00 (local time) on July 23; allot for disruptions

Please be advised

- Reports indicate that a rally against prison violence will be held in Berlin on July 23.
- The protesters will gather at Turmstrasse at 20:00 (local time) and proceed through Luebecker Strasses, Perleberger Strasse, Birkenstrasse, and Rathenower Strasse.

Assessments

Given local reports, the turnout for the rally will likely be in the low hundreds. While the protest is likely to transpire peacefully, without incidents of unrest, a bolstered security enforcement is likely in the vicinity of the protest locations as a precautionary measure and to ensure compliance with social distancing protocols. Disruptions to both pedestrian and vehicular traffic are likely around the protest locations during the evening hours due to the planned rally.

Recommendations

Those operating or residing in Berlin on July 23 are advised to allot for disruptions to travel in the vicinity of the aforementioned locations during the evening hours due to the planned rally.
