Thailand Tactical: Three detained at ongoing protest on Vibhavadi Rangsit Road in Bangkok during evening hours (local time) on August 21; avoid nonessential travel

Please be advised:

- At least three individuals have been detained at an anti-government protest that is ongoing on Vibhavadi Rangsit Road in Bangkok as of the evening hours (local time) on August 21.
- Reports indicate that protesters launched fireworks at authorities and staged steel panels to block the road.
- Forcible dispersal methods by the authorities, including tear gas and water cannons, have also been reported.

Recommendations:

Those operating or residing in Bangkok over the coming hours of August 21 are advised to avoid nonessential travel to the aforementioned location given the ongoing protest and reported unrest.
