Germany Tactical: Healthcare professionals to stage protest in Berlin outside Charite Bettenhochhaus from 11:30 (local time) on September 10; allot for disruptions

Please be advised

- Healthcare professionals are slated to stage a protest in Berlin outside the Charite Bettenhochhaus, located at Luisenstrasse 58-60, from 11:30 (local time) on September 10. Post the initial gathering, participants will stage a run from 12:00 to Platz der Republik.
- The protest has been called to advocate for better climate protection and health. Several medical associations will be participating in the protest.

Assessments

Based on organizers' estimates, the turnout for the protest is likely to be in the low hundreds. The protest run is expected to transpire peacefully and without instances of unrest. Regardless, a bolstered police presence will be deployed as a general precautionary measure. Disruptions to vehicular and pedestrian traffic may be experienced from the late morning hours onwards.

Recommendations

Those operating or residing in Berlin on September 10 are advised to allot for disruptions to travel in the vicinity of the aforementioned protest from the late morning hours onwards.
