

Travel

22

MAY
10:17 UTC

Israel Tactical: Additional airlines extend flight suspension to, from Israel through July 31; remain cognizant of updates, reconfirm itineraries

Current Situation:

- Additional international airlines have extended their flight suspensions to and from Israel, citing security concerns, according to May 21 reports.
- Air France has extended its flight suspension till May 24.
- LOT Polish Airlines has reportedly extended its flight suspensions till May 26.
- Air Baltic has reportedly suspended flights till June 2.
- ITA Airways and the Lufthansa Group, which includes Lufthansa, Austrian Airlines, SWISS, Brussels Airlines, and Eurowings, have suspended flights and have reportedly extended their flight suspensions till June 8.
- Ryanair has extended its flight suspension until June 11.
- Air Seychelles has suspended flights till July 31.
- Meanwhile, Delta Airlines has resumed daily flights between New York and Tel Aviv from May 19.

Source: Ynet

Recommendations:

Those planning to travel to and from Israel on May 22 and over the coming days and months are advised to remain cognizant of updates regarding flight cancellations and disruptions and reconfirm travel itineraries.