

Armed Conflict

02

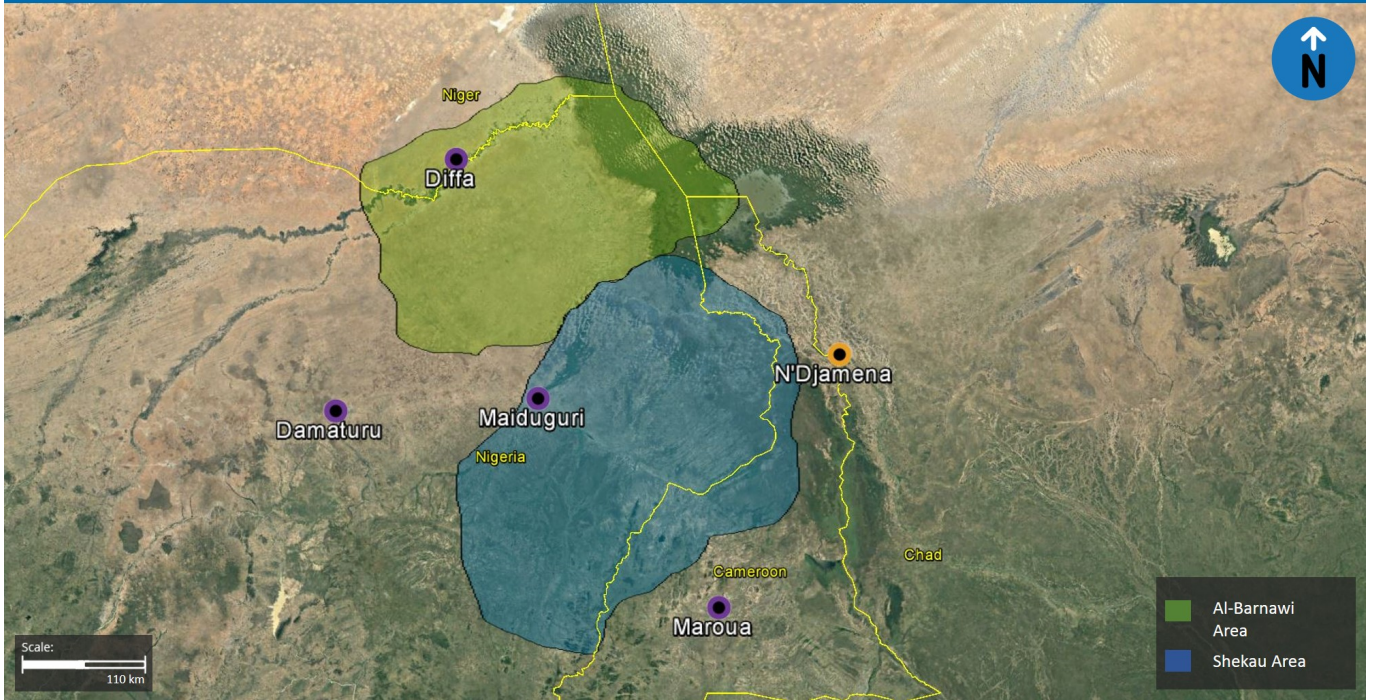

NOV

18:14 UTC

Lake Chad SITUATION UPDATE: September 27 - October 3, 2017

- Jihadists in the Nigerian states of Borno and Yobe and in Niger's Diffa Region clashed with security forces multiple times over the past week, suffering fatalities and seeing weapons seized.
- Several locales in Borno State and in Cameroon's Extreme North Region faced attacks by Boko Haram targeting both civilians and security forces, in the form of multiple raids as well as one suicide bombing and one IED attack.
- The reported October 3 confession by a self-professed Boko Haram "officer" before members of the media regarding the group's plans, apparently devised by himself and several associates, to attack several locations throughout Ondo State, illustrate Boko Haram's continued desire to conduct attacks outside its traditional area of operations

Approximate spheres of influence of Boko Haram's al-Barnawi and Shekau factions

Executive Summary

- Jihadists in the Nigerian states of Borno and Yobe and in Niger’s Diffa Region clashed with security forces multiple times over the past week, suffering fatalities and seeing weapons seized.
- Several locales in Borno State and in Cameroon’s Extreme North Region faced attacks by Boko Haram targeting both civilians and security forces, in the form of multiple raids as well as one suicide bombing and one IED attack.
- The reported October 3 confession by a self-professed Boko Haram “officer” before members of the media regarding the group’s plans, apparently devised by himself and several associates, to attack several locations throughout Ondo State, illustrate Boko Haram’s continued desire to conduct attacks outside its traditional area of operations

Jihadist Incidents in Nigeria

State	LGA	Locale	Date	Brief Description
-------	-----	--------	------	-------------------