India Tactical: Traffic restrictions imposed for sports event at Indira Gandhi Stadium in Delhi until March 16; allot for disruptions

Current Situation:

- The Delhi Traffic Police imposed traffic restrictions for a sports event at the Indira Gandhi Indoor Stadium in the city until March 16.
- Vehicular traffic is restricted on Indraprastha (IP) Marg, Vikas Marg, and Ring Road from Rajghat to IP Depot between 12:00-00:00 (local time) on event days.
- The authorities also imposed traffic diversions on IP Marg, Vikas Marg, and Mahatma Gandhi Road in Delhi from 15:00 until the conclusion of the event on the day until March 16.
- Limited parking is available near the stadium for vehicles with a valid parking label. Parking label holders should approach the stadium parking via Ring Road and enter through Mahatma Gandhi Road. Vehicles without a valid parking label are not allowed near the venue.
- Roadside parking is prohibited in the area to maintain traffic flow, and illegally parked vehicles will be towed and prosecuted under the law.
- Further, Delhi Traffic Police advised those traveling to and from the stadium to allow extra time for travel due to expected congestion.
- Full advisory can be found here.
