Israel Tactical: Anti-government protest ongoing at Tel Aviv's Habima Square during night hours of April 27; maintain heightened vigilance

Please be advised:

- Reports indicate that "Black Flag" protesters are currently demonstrating at the Habima Square in Tel Aviv during the night hours of April 27.
- The "Black Flag" protesters seek to oust Prime Minister (PM) Benjamin Netanyahu, who has been indicted on criminal charges, to preserve "Israeli democracy".
- At the time of writing, no unrest has been reported at the location of the protest.

Recommendations:

Those operating or residing in Tel Aviv during the night hours of April 27 are advised to maintain heightened vigilance and allot for travel disruptions in the vicinity of Habima Square due to the ongoing protest and the potential for localized unrest.
