Please be advised:

- Libyan authorities announced the resumption of domestic flights to and from Benghazi's Benina International Airport and al-Bayda's al-Abraq International Airport in Labraq on November 16.
- While there is no official statement, unconfirmed reports indicate that domestic flights have also resumed at the Tobruk Airport.

Recommendations:

Those planning to travel through Benghazi's Benina International Airport, al-Bayda's al-Abraq International Airport in Labraq, and the Tobruk Airport on November 16 and over the coming days are advised to reconfirm their travel itineraries in light of the resumption in domestic flights at both facilities.
