

Protest

07
NOV
5:13 UTC

USA Tactical (UPDATE): Additional protests denouncing Trump's victory reported in Philadelphia, New York City as of overnight hours (local time) on November 6-7; allot for disruptions

CLICK HERE TO VIEW PREVIOUS REPORT

Current Situation

- Emerging reports indicate that protests denouncing the electoral victory of Republican President-elect Donald Trump are ongoing in Philadelphia, PA and in New York City, NY as of the overnight hours (local time) on November 6-7.
- In Philadelphia, PA, protesters are currently gathered outside the Philadelphia City Hall on 1400 John F Kennedy Boulevard.
- According to visuals emerging from the scene, the protest has drawn participation in the range of low-to-mid dozens. No unrest or disruptions have been recorded as of writing.

Source: X/Twitter

- Meanwhile, in New York City, NY, New York University (NYU) students affiliated with the Students for a Democratic Society student activist group are participating in a protest at Cadman Plaza Park, located along Cadman Plaza Way in Brooklyn.
- Protesters are reportedly shouting pro-Palestinian and anti-Trump chants.
- Visuals indicate that the protest is being participated in the mid-to-high dozens. No unrest has been recorded as of writing.

Source: X/Twitter

Recommendations

Those residing or operating in Philadelphia, PA and New York City, NY over the coming hours on November 7 are advised to allot for disruptions to travel near the aforementioned locations due to ongoing protests.