Israel Tactical: Jerusalem Light Rail operations temporarily suspended due to infrastructure damage during morning hours of May 11; allot for disruptions

Current Situation:

- Jerusalem Light Rail operations have reportedly been suspended during the morning hours (local time) of May 11.
- This is reportedly due to damage caused by a tractor belonging to an external contractor hitting railway infrastructure near the Hehalutz station on Herzl Boulevard.
- Additional bus services will be activated during the suspension of Light Rail services.
- Operations are expected to resume following the conclusion of repair work.
